Student Life

CMU supports more than 120 clubs and organizations spanning all interests including academic, athletic, cultural, professional associations and honor societies. CMU's Student Life office aims to enrich the college experience by providing student oriented opportunities that promote diverse learning, exploration and campus involvement. Some international-focused clubs include the International Student Alliance, Asian Student Association and Latino Student Alliance.

Organizations such as Associated Student Government and the Residence Hall Association enable students to take an active role in shaping CMU's campus while improving your interpersonal skills and increasing your value to future employers.

Athletics

Colorado Mesa is an NCAA Division II school and a member of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference.
